

Annual ENOP Symposium 2023

«Trust and Morality in a Post-Truth World»

(March 23-24 2023, Paris)

ENOP SYMPOSIUM PROGRAMME

Time:

March 23, 10.00 – 17.00

March 24, 10.00 – 13.00

Business meeting: 14.00-16.00

Location: Maison des Sciences de l’Homme,
54 Boulevard Raspail, Paris

Summary:

As the UN opens to accept the advocacy and expert insights of Psychologists on citizen and worker well-being post-pandemic (IAAP 2023), this symposium seeks to surface the current evidence on active trust and moral agency in contemporary workplaces. The presentations seek to bring ENOP members up-to-date with emergent evidence and provide a forum for discussion of both policy and practical implications.

Topics and presenters:

- Introduction – (Rosalind Searle, Adam Smith Business School, University of Glasgow & Finian Buckley, Dublin City University Business School).
- The Impact of Trust on Workplace Dynamics and Outcomes: An Overview (Finian Buckley, Dublin City University Business School)
- Trust, Distrust and Vulnerability in a Cyber Security Context (Rosalind Searle, Adam Smith Business School, University of Glasgow)
- Motivated Trust in Artificial Intelligence at Work: The case of HRM Systems and HRM Stakeholders. (Guido Hertel, University of Muenster)
- “It’s Business”: A Qualitative study of the dynamics of Moral Injury and Well-Being (Karina Nielsen, Sheffield University Management School)
- On Trusting Leaders (Deanne den Hartog, University of Amsterdam)
- How organisations accomplish wrongdoing through the moral agency lens. The conceptualisation of organisational moral disengagement (Roberta Fida, Norwich Business School)